

Buxton-Hollis Historical Society presents...

Reconsidering the Lizzy Borden Murder Case:

The Role of Ethnicity & Gender – Explore this 1892 landmark case & American Society

Join Joseph Conforti, author of seven books on New England history and culture and Distinguished Professor of American and New England Studies Emeritus at the University of So. Maine, as he reviews the famous murders and trial, as well as how issues of ethnicity and gender help broaden our understanding of what happened.

For more information, visit www.buxtonhollishistorical.org or call 929-1684.

Tuesday, October 16 @ 7:00 p.m.
Buxton-Hollis Historical Society
100 Main Street (Rt. 4A), Bar Mills

Suggested donation: $10, Seniors $8*

\ All program donations support on-going capital projects at our new history center.*